JETS OWNERSHIP

"It all starts at the top."

That's a common phrase when talking about the success of any professional operation, and it particularly holds true with the steps taken to bring about the resurgence of the New York Jets.

Directors Leon Hess and Mrs. Helen Dillon showed their desire to return the club to the forefront of the NFL in 1977 when they selected Walt Michaels to be their leader on the field and Jim Kensil to assume the full responsibility of administering the overall operation of the club.

Their patience and commitment towards building a solid foundation were rewarded in 1981. While some called for changes after the Jets' 0-3 start, Hess and Dillon stood behind the program and Michaels. The club's 10-5-1 finish and playoff appearance answered all skeptics.

"When things looked the darkest, they were the brightest," said Michaels about Hess, Dillon and Kensil on the day the Jets clinched their playoff berth.

The Jets' ownership has also fought long and hard to secure early home dates. For over a decade, the Jets had been "orphans" of the NFL, never being allowed to play preseason or regular season games before their fans during the baseball season.

That all changed in 1978 when the Jets opened the season at home for the first time since 1964 and played five games at Shea in September and October. For the remaining two years of their lease with the City at Shea, the Jets have been guaranteed at least four early season home games.

Hess has been totally involved in the development of the club since acquiring part of the franchise in 1963, and now holds seventy-five percent ownership. Mrs. Dillon, who retains twenty-five percent, is the daughter of former club president Donald C. Lillis. She assumed the post of vice president in 1968 upon the death of her father and has been an active member ever since.

LEON HESS, chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate affairs, is chairman of the board of the Amerada Hess Corporation. He is a respected member of the board of directors of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club, the American Broadcasting Corporation and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company.

MRS. HELEN DILLON, vice president, is a vivacious and enthusiastic fan who is in regular attendance at every Jets' game and function. She has become one of the most respected and knowledgeable woman executives in sports and is the first woman on the board of directors of the Pop Warner Football Association. Mrs. Dillon was honored in 1977 by that organization for her contributions to football. She resides in Greenwich, Conn., with her husband, Dr. Thomas F. Dillon.

JIM KENSIL, President

Progress in pro football depends greatly on stability and direction. The Jets believe that in Jim Kensil they have the man at the top to provide these essential elements for success.

In his five seasons with the Jets, Kensil has stressed communication within the organization and has exhibited strong leadership. During the team's slow start in 1981, Kensil remained committed to the Jets' building program and refused to make hasty changes. His efforts were rewarded last season as the Jets qualified for the playoffs for the first time in 12 years.

Kensil, who was named the Jets' president and chief operating officer on June 6, 1977, was an administrator for the NFL for 16 years, nine as executive director and seven as director of public relations. Commissioner Pete Rozelle called Kensil, "my offensive and defensive coordinator."

Kensil succeeded Leon Hess, who had served as acting president of the Jets following the death of Phil Iselin in December, 1976. Hess now has the responsibilities of chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate matters. Kensil also serves as a member of the board of directors.

Kensil is a member of the executive committee of the NFL Management Council, the executive committee of NFL Properties and a member of the board of the Bert Bell NFL Retirement Plan.

While in the NFL office, Kensil made many innovative contributions to pro football. He was one of the chief architects of the NFL scheduling format that was introduced in 1978.

Kensil began his sportswriting career as a student stringer at the University of Pennsylvania. After graduating in 1952, he went to work for the Associated Press in New York City on the sports and news desk before being drafted. He served in Germany and edited the Seventh Army newspaper.

He returned to the AP in 1954 and worked nearly two years in Columbus, Ohio, before coming back to the New York bureau where he covered general sports assignments, edited the teletypesetter Sports Wire and wrote a weekly column about sports on radio and television called "The Sports Dial." He left the AP in 1961 to join the NFL as public relations director.

Kensil was born Aug. 19, 1930, in Philadelphia, Pa. He and his wife, Catherine, have four children and reside in Massapequa, Long Island. Their oldest son, Mike 26, is traveling secretary for the Jets. They also have two other sons, Joe 24 and Danny 20, and a daughter, Mary Jo 22.

WALT MICHAELS, Head Coach

"I think we now have a foundation on which to continue building," said Jets head coach Walt Michaels at the end of the 1981 season which saw the Jets make their first entrance into the NFL playoffs since 1969. "The players learned about winning. They got a taste of what it means to win. They learned how 'warm' New York can be in December and January."

The "building" and "winning" go back to two Michaels' philosophies: "We want to build something solid. We don't want a prefab house. We want one put together brick by brick. Then you know it will last." And: "The toughest thing about winning, is winning the first time."

In 1981, the Jets did learn to win. They roared back from an 0-3 start to produce the fifth best record in the NFL (10-5-1) and fought their way to their first winning season since 1969.

With many expressing doubts following the near disastrous start, Michaels received the backing of owners Leon Hess and Helen Dillon and president Jim Kensil, to stick with the program they had built together in New York. "When things looked the darkest, they were the brightest," said Michaels.

The belief in the developing and maturing young players paid off as the Jets achieved a 10-2-1 record over the last 13 weeks, the best mark in the AFC and surpassed only by Super Bowl champion San Francisco's 11-2 record.

"Walt Michaels has not babied anybody on this team," said quarterback Richard Todd. "He has made us grow up and you grow up through losing. You learn how to lose and then you learn how to win. We are at the latter stage now."

"Walt respects you if you do the job," said all-pro tackle Marvin Powell. "He gives you a certain amount of leeway and treats you like a man. We're not pampered. He tells you what is wrong; he's honest."

In 1977, the 52-year-old former Cleveland Brown great's first year as head coach, the Jets did not improve their 3-11 record from the year before, but they regained respect throughout the league with their aggressive, hard-hitting style of play, particularly against some of the toughest teams in the NFL.

Michaels was rewarded with an extension of his contract before the 1978 season. "It's a simple matter of Walt doing the job," said club president Jim Kensil. "He has leadership quality. He's a hard worker. He's organized. And people believe in him. It's not just the players, it's the ownership."

In Michaels' second season at the helm, the Jets stayed in play-off contention until the 15th game of the season before losing in overtime at Cleveland. The Jets finished 8-8, their best record since 1974 and their most wins since 1969. They made the biggest improvement in the won-lost record of any team in the NFL, picking up five victories from 1977.

For the Jets' accomplishment, Michaels was named AFC coach of the year by the Pro Football Writers Association and UPI. He was selected NFL coach of the year by Pro Football Weekly and several other publications.

The son of Polish immigrants, Michaels' football philosophy was molded in the Pennsylvania coal mine country. "My father died when he was 54 and he understood two things about football," Michaels said, "If you hit, you win. And if you won, you were successful."

Michaels did a lot of hitting and winning as a linebacker for the Cleveland Browns from 1952-61. He played on two NFL championship teams, five divisional winners and made the Pro Bowl four straight years from 1957-60.

He was drafted in the seventh round by Cleveland in 1951 out of Washington & Lee, where he played fullback, guard and linebacker while earning a B.A. in psychology and education. The Browns traded Michaels that same year to Green Bay for Dan Orlich and then reacquired him in 1952 for Richard Logan, Elmer Costa and Forrest Grigg. Michaels became a starting linebacker and missed only two games in his 10-year career with Cleveland.

Michaels' toughness was transplanted into the defenses he coached in the pro ranks. He began as defensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders in 1962 and joined the Jets the following year in a similar position under Weeb Ewbank.

For 10 years Michaels masterminded the growth of the Jets' defense, which became one of the most respected in the AFL and then AFC. Under his tutelage, such players as Gerry Philbin, John Elliott, Verlon Biggs, Al Atkinson, Larry Grantham and Ralph Baker were developed.

When Michaels first joined the Jets' staff, he came out of retirement for the 1963 opener at Boston when the Jets' linebacking corps was decimated by injuries. He played the entire game after not having practiced for two years.

Michaels devoted all his energy to coaching after his one-game "comeback." In 1967 he took over the secondary and linebackers and helped mold the Jets' 1968 defense into the number-one unit in the AFL against the rush and in total defense. In 1970, the unit again ranked on top in total defense as well as first against the rush in the AFC.

Michaels' finest hour came in Super Bowl III. Although the Jets' defense received little of the glamour in the stunning 16-7 upset victory, Michaels' men played a significant role by holding Baltimore scoreless until less than four minutes remained. The often maligned secondary of four free agents intercepted four Colt passes.

The game created an unusual situation for Walt's mother, Mary, who was chosen NFL mother of the year in 1966. On the Baltimore side was Walt's brother, Lou, a standout placekicker who played in the NFL from 1958-69 after earning All-America honors as a tackle at Kentucky.

Michaels remained with the Jets until 1973 when, with Charley Winner designated as the next head coach, he left to join the Eagles.

Michaels was defensive coordinator at Philadelphia for three seasons before returning to the Jets in 1976 to oversee the defense under Lou Holtz.

Holtz resigned after the 13th game that season, and Michaels became the eighth head coach in Jets' history in January, 1977.

Michaels is another in the line of Paul Brown products to become head coaches in the pros. Presently there are four others: Forrest Gregg, Chuck Noll, Don Shula and Bill Walsh.

Although football dominates most of Michaels' life, he enjoys spending time on his farm in Swoyersville, Pa., where he relaxes by chopping wood, gardening and hunting.

In 1977 Michaels was named to the Commonwealth of Virginia and Long Island (N.Y.) sports halls of fame. In 1978 he was inducted into the ODK honorary fraternity at Washington & Lee for outstanding achievement and also was honored by the New York Press Photographers Association for his cooperation.

Michaels was born Oct. 16, 1929, in Swoyersville. He and his wife, Betty, have four children: Mary Ann 25, Walter, Jr. 23, a former All-East linebacker at Kutztown (Pa.) State; Mark 18, currently playing football at Connecticut, and Paul 14. They make their home in West Islip, N.Y.

G 6-4 260 6/17/55

Louisiana State

Draft 8a, 1977

6th Season

PRO: "Dan was once again a very consistent performer for us last year," Michaels said. "He does not miss assignments or get called for penalties. Dan plays when hurt and does equally well for the pass or run."...enjoyed another durable season in 1981...played in 16 games and started 15...did not start vs. Houston due to shoulder injury, but did see action...averaged only 1 penalty per 314 plays (total of 7) in the past 2 seasons...has played in 78 straight games for the Jets...was the only offensive lineman that didn't miss a play in 1980...one of the least known of the Jet players but one of the best...called the "best pass blocker on the team" by linemate Marvin Powell...very durable and not afraid to play hurt...makes very few mistakes...his low center of gravity enables him to sustain blocks well...started 15 games at right guard in 1979 when Jets led NFL in rushing for the first time ever...made smooth transition to guard after playing defensive tackle at LSU...won starting job in 3rd game of rookie season, alternated later in the year and took over spot permanently in 1978.

COLLEGE: Started 2 years in LSU defensive line...had 10 QB sacks as a senior...played in Japan and Hula bowls.

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in law enforcement and would like to work for FBI some day...nicknamed "Bayou"...an avid hunter...twice all-city at Lamar High in his birthplace and hometown of Houston, Tex.

PRO CAREER STATS: Jet fumbles recovered: 1 in 1978. Games played/started (78/70 total): 1977 (14/8), 1978 (16/16), 1979 (16/15), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (16/15)

The Jets have an excellent offensive line. Powell and Ward get most of the attention being first round picks, but the best lineman of them all may be Alexander.

C 6-2 253 11/14/53

Widener

Draft 14, 1975

8th Season

PRO: "Joe emerged as a team leader last year and has also become recognized as one of the finest centers in the NFL," Michaels said. "He's a hard worker who does a fine job against both 3 and 4 man lines."...earned first trip to the Pro Bowl last season...selected all-pro by College & Pro Football Weekly and NY Daily News...cited as all-pro 2nd team by AP and Sporting News, while UPI named him to their all-AFC squad...started 16 games at center...graded out high among the offensive lineman once again...served as an offensive co-captain last season...since becoming a starter has missed only 4 games due to injuries...graded high and was not called for any penalties in 1980 in 816 plays...called "the most underrated player on the team" by offensive line coach Bob Fry. "Joe's not the biggest center around, but he has good quickness and strength. He's extra smart on making line calls."...started 15 games in 1979 when Jets led NFL in rushing for first time ever...has one of the fastest and most accurate snaps in the league (between .7 and .8 seconds to the punter)...classic example of determined player who has made himself good...was given little chance of making the team as a 14th round pick out of tiny Widener, particularly when he showed up at rookie camp with baby fat...spent countless hours lifting weights and practicing snaps to his wife and father...remains one of the most dedicated weightlifters on the team.

COLLEGE: Never missed a play at Widener (Chester, Pa.) despite contused shoulder and sprained ankle as a senior...all-conference in 1974...called blocking assignments for offensive line...played with Billy "White Shoes" Johnson...gained 25 pounds between his junior and senior years because he wanted to be pro center...originally enrolled at Rutgers-Camden, which didn't have a football team, but was persuaded to transfer by Widener coach Bill Manlove.

PERSONAL: Wife Kay...has degree in accounting...spent off-season working out with weights...has a home in Woodbury Heights, N.J....very active in public service activities; voted by fans as Jets' NFL Man of the Year for his play on the field and charity work in 1980...helped at the Christmas party sponsored by No Greater Love and Eastern Paralyzed Veterans Association for children stricken with leukemia...served as L.I. co-chairman for the March of Dimes' Walk-a-Thon...has done volunteer work with several community hospitals and blood centers...also participated in No Greater Love's "Fire Safety for the Handicapped" program...has made appearances for the Boy Scouts' membership enrollment drives...birthplace: Woodbury, N.J...hometown: Deptford, N.J.

DE 6-5 270 11/20/56
East Central (Okla.)
Draft 2, 1979 4th Season

PRO: "Mark is just beginning to scratch the surface," Michaels said. "His pass rush improved tremendously, and as the season progressed, he became better against the run. He plays the game with a great deal of enthusiasm and we're looking for him to improve again this season."...selected to Pro Bowl after finishing second in NFL to teammate Joe Klecko with 20 QB sacks, now the 2nd best in Jets' history...was runner-up to Klecko for UPI's AFC defensive player of the year...named all-pro by College & Pro Football Weekly and NY Daily News and was 2nd team all-NFL by AP, Sporting News and NEA...was named all-AFC by UPI and Pro Football Weekly...started 16 games at LE...finished 8th on squad tackle chart with 84 (48 solos)...started slowly in 1981 due to ankle sprain suffered in preseason which limited playing time to only 1 quarter...had career high 4 QB sacks vs. Houston and 3 each against the Giants and New England...credited with 12 QB pressures and 1 sack in playoff game vs. Buffalo...had at least 1 sack in 10 games...was 2nd on team with 115 QB pressures (7.2 per game)...registered 5 or more QB pressures in 12 of 16 games including 14 vs. New England and 12 at the Giants...recovered 2 fumbles and forced 1 in 1981...was selected most popular Jet by CYO of New York in 1981...led Jets in QB sacks in 1980 with 11½ and pressures with 122 after taking over the starting job from Lawrence Pillers...had 5 or more QB pressures in 12 of 16 games that season...had outstanding game vs. Houston that year with 3 sacks and forced his opponent into 5 holding penalties to account for Houston's loss of 69 yards...also amassed a career high 19 pressures in that game...only starting performance in rookie season was vs. Detroit, but played in all 16 games...was utilized primarily in passing situations in 1979...had 2 sacks and finished 2nd to Klecko with 49 QB pressures...the fastest Jet lineman...was clocked in 4.59 seconds in the 40 in 1981...has worked on weight-lifting program with former champion Jon Cole...exhibited incredible strength during 1980 training camp by tearing the face-guard off a rookie offensive lineman's helmet with his bare hands during practice...very emotional and fiery player...credits a great deal of his success to working against all-pro Marvin Powell every day in drills.

COLLEGE: Gained attention of pro scouts with his performance in Senior Bowl when he was selected the North's outstanding defensive lineman (Marty Lyons, Jets' No. 1 draft pick in 1979, earned same honor for the South)...was first player from East Central (Ada, Okla.) ever selected for Senior Bowl...also first player ever drafted from his school...had 27 QB sacks in two years...originally played at Eastern Arizona JC in 1975 and Arizona State in 1976 before transferring...selected all-conference, NAIA All-District Nine and honorable mention NAIA All-America as a senior...earned two letters in track as shot put (conference champ and record holder) and discus specialist.

PERSONAL: Wife Lisa...majored in Spanish...finished in 3rd place in ABC's Superstars finals during offseason...owns land in hometown of Springerville, Ariz. and spends time collecting ancient Indian artifacts there...enjoys rodeos, both as a spectator and participant...father Ernie was a professional heavy-weight boxer...helped out at the Christmas party for leukemia victims sponsored by No Greater Love and Eastern Paralyzed Veterans Association...three-sport standout at Round Valley High in Springerville...birthplace: Ardmore, Okla.

Going against Gastineau is like going up against the Indy 500 speed race. He doesn't just move, he accelerates with speed and finesse. He can shake and bake you and leave you standing there, he can run over you; he can do anything he wants. I have driven him to the sidelines, and I've seen him race across the field to make the tackle on the other side.

Kutztown (Pa.) State
Free Agent, 1977 6th Season

PRO: "Bruce is still one of the NFL's best all-purpose backs," Michaels said. "Last year he was called upon to carry the ball more and came through with a lot of big plays for us." ...was the Jets leading receiver (career high 52 receptions for 459 yards) and second leading rusher (81-393) in 1981...had 4 rushing TDs (career high) and 1 TD reception...played in 16 games and started 7 when Freeman McNeil was out with injuries...finished 3rd in MVP voting (behind Richard Todd and Joe Klecko) by teammates. ...had season high 70 yards rushing on only 7 carries vs. New England... had outstanding 29-yard TD on draw play vs. Buffalo...tied career high with 8 receptions at Seattle for 67 yards...had 46-yard punt return to the one-yard line vs. Baltimore to set up TD...was among NFL leaders with 1,597 in combined yardage (rushing, receiving, returns) in 1981...came back in 1981 after being hospitalized for 5 weeks during April-May after a bout with pneumonia resulted in an inflammatory condition in the area of the heart and lungs...was team MVP in 1980 and was selected as the first alternate for the Pro Bowl...topped the NFL and led the AFC for the 4th straight year in 1980 with 2,072...became only the 5th NFL player to reach 2,000 twice in a career...the others are O.J. Simpson, Gale Sayers, Terry Metcalf and Timmy Brown...was Jets' leading receiver in 1980 with 50 receptions for 634 yards...is ranked high in several categories for NFL career marks...his 6,623 combined return career yardage is 3rd best in NFL history; 5,023 yards career kickoff returns is ranked 3rd; 383 combined punt and kickoff returns is also ranked 3rd...has missed only 1 game in 5 years...had started only 3 games prior to last season, 2 of those came in rookie year when he also saw action as a wide receiver...held the NFL record with 55 kickoff returns set in 1978 and 1979...led league in kickoff return yardage in 1979 with 1,158...holds 9 Jets' records...most kickoff return yardage in a game (204 in 1979), season (1,280 in 1978) and career (5,023)...most kickoff returns in a game (8, twice), season (55 in 1978 and 1979) and career (224)...most punt returns (160) and punt yardage (1,600) in a career...most punt return yardage in a season (425 in 1977)...led NFL in combined yardage in 1978 (2,157) when he set NFL record for combined punt and kickoff return yardage (1,658), breaking Chuck Latourette's 1968 mark of 1,582...his 82-yard punt return for a TD vs. Buffalo was the third longest in Jets' history and tied for longest in NFL in 1978...led AFC in combined yardage with 1,867 as a free agent in 1977 when he was named pro rookie of the year by N.J. Sportwriters Association.

COLLEGE: Was recommended to Jets by Walt Michaels' son, Walter, Jr., who played with Harper at Kutztown (Pa.) State...honorable mention Little All-America in 1976 when he was first back in school's history to rush for over 1,000 yards (1,132)...3-year rushing total of 2,169 yards.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in social welfare...worked for Jordache and filmed television special with Floyd Patterson during offseason...hometown and birthplace, Englewood, N.J., which gave him the key to the city in 1980...football and track standout at Dwight Morrow High, where he was a friend of John Travolta.

Because of his low center of gravity, he's hard to bring down. And when you do try to tackle him, he's capable of going off in any direction. He has a super knack for giving himself and then taking it away, like O.J. Simpson did. And he's got great vision. He seems to see the tacklers.

JERRY

47

CB-S 6-2 175 12/22/57
West Virginia
Free Agent, 1980 3rd Season

PRO: "Jerry had the best year of all our CBs last season," Michaels said. "He was the biggest surprise on our team and he proved that a free agent CB can make it. Jerry is not afraid of a challenge and he can play either corner position." ...played all 16 games and started 13 in 1981. ...got first starting assignment in 4th game of season when he replaced the injured Bobby Jackson at LCB...started 5 games at LCB and then moved over to RCB when Jackson returned...started the final 8 games at RCB...led the Jets with 12 passes defended...finished with 57 tackles (45 solos)...had first career interception at Seattle and added another one in playoff game vs. Buffalo...recovered fumble vs. Giants...performed well in single coverage situations...one of the club's hardest hitters despite his tall, thin appearance...played in 12 games in 1980, primarily on special teams and as the nickel back in passing situations...was 3rd on team in special teams points...was very effective in breaking the wedge on kickoffs...missed 4 games in 1980 with sprained knee...placed on injured reserve Oct. 21 and reactivated Nov. 22...was the only rookie free agent on the 1980 opening day roster.

COLLEGE: Played 2 years at West Virginia after transferring from Chowan Junior College (North Carolina)...named to AP All-East second team in 1979...was team captain and MVP as a senior.

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in personnel management...did volunteer work for the Boys Club in his hometown during off-season...football and basketball standout at Bethel High in his hometown of Hampton, Va...Birthplace: Newport News, Va.

PRO CAREER STATS: Interceptions: 1 in 1981, 0 yards, 0 LG, 0 TD Opp. fumbles recovered: 1 in 1981 Games played/started (28/13 total): 1980 (12/0), 1981 (16/13).

Jerry characterizes what we want from our defense. A hard worker, consistent, enthusiastic, a hitter. Nobody hits harder than he does. Our linebackers are amazed by the way he hits. And if he doesn't succeed the first time, he gets up and tries again.

—Jets' Defensive Coordinator Joe Gardi

BOBBY

Jackson

40

CB 5-10 180 12/23/56
Florida State
Draft 6a, 1978 5th Season

PRO: "Bobby was plagued by injuries last season," Michaels said. "It was unfortunate that he broke his arm just when he was returning to his 1980 form." ...was hampered by injuries the entire season in 1981...played in 9 games and started 6...missed most of preseason with Achilles tendonitis and was then limited early in the season with calf ailment which sidelined him for 2 games...was coming back to form in mid-season and then suffered a broken arm at New England...placed on injured reserve Nov. 18...was reactivated for playoff game vs. Buffalo but did not see much playing time due to arm...finished season with 32 tackles (28 solos)...credited with 1 pass defended...served as a defensive co-captain...led the Jets with 13 passes defended in 1980...had only 1 interception...mainly since opponents rarely threw to his side...had 72 tackles (41 solos)...tied for the team lead with 16 passes defended in 1979 and was second with 4 interceptions...awarded game ball vs. Miami that year after he returned an interception 58-yards for a TD...was consensus NFL all-rookie when he tied for the club lead with 5 interceptions...tied with Johnny "Lam" Jones and Wesley Walker as the fastest player on the team in the 40, timed at 4.38...also has good jumping ability...Jets drafted him with the 6th round pick obtained from Buffalo for Billy Newsome in 1977 trade.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman...set Florida State career record with 10 interceptions...returned 30 punts for 10.5 average...honorable mention All-America as senior when team won Tangerine Bowl.

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in criminology...makes year-round home on L.I....was involved in the NFL's Goals for Youth Tutorial Program during offseason...traveled to Atlantic City three days per week to tutor children of migrant workers in reading and math...has done volunteer work for Deborah Hospital...plays the drums...cousin of Atlanta receiver Alfred Jenkins...nicknamed "Bojack"...credits jumping ability to hitching rides on the back of garbage trucks while growing up in Albany, Ga., also his birthplace...tried out for junior high football team but played in the band because coach said he was too small...went on to earn all-state honors as a CB and WR at Albany High.

PRO CAREER STATS: Interceptions: 10 (5 for 26 yards, 13 LG, 0 TD in 1978, 4-63-58t LG, 1 TD in 1979, 1-7-7 LG, 0 TD in 1980). Opp. fumbles recovered: 1 in 1978. Games played/started (56/53 total): 1978 (16/16), 1979 (16/16), 1980 (15/15), 1981 (9/6).

JESSE

S-CB 6-2 188 8/23/57
Colorado
Draft 4, 1980 3rd Season

PRO: "Jesse was another example of the '45-starters' concept for us," Michaels said. "He played CB really well when called upon in emergency situations and helped keep our playoff drive alive."...played 16 games and started final 4 at LCB...did fine job at

CB despite being a natural safety...also played nickel back in passing situations during season...he and Kurt Sohn finished as the Jets' 1981 special teams leaders...had outstanding play in end zone at Cleveland to break up a TD pass in Jets' 14-13 win...credited with 29 tackles (18 solos)...recovered fumble vs. Giants...also had 5 passes defended in 1981...played in 16 games in rookie season and started vs. Houston for the injured Bobby Jackson...finished season with 36 tackles (16 solos).

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at Colorado...had 6 career interceptions, including a team high 3 as a junior...showed his versatility at Senior Bowl where he played free safety after being a cornerback throughout his college career...played RCB at Colorado with Mark Haynes (Giants' 1980 first round pick) at LCB...played in Blue-Gray game...opposition threw mostly in Johnson's direction because of Haynes, and coaches felt it made him a better player.

PERSONAL: Wife Karen...has degree in communications...has worked at KOA-TV (NBC affiliate) in Denver...would like to be a technical director in television some day...was all-conference RB and all-state basketball player at East High in his hometown of Cheyenne, Wyo...also a track standout...won state championships in 100 and 200-yard dashes and triple jump as a senior...birthplace: Fort Collins, Colo.

WR 5-11 185 7/12/55
No College
Free Agent, 1978 5th Season

PRO: "Good things seemed to happen whenever Bobby was in the game last year," Michaels said. "He filled in well for Wesley Walker and always seemed to come up with the big play..." played in 16 games and started 3 when Walker was out with calf injury...finished with 16 catches for 239 yards (14.9 avg.) and 1 TD...his miracle 36-yard TD at Miami, which was ranked as the 3rd best catch in all sports by Inside Sports, tied the game with only 1:09 left...also raced 61-yards with a fumble for a TD vs. Buffalo at Shea...had 4 catches for 64 yards in playoff game vs. Buffalo, including a 30-yard TD...played in 15 games and started 4 in 1980 when he caught 14 for 193 yards...started the last 7 games of the 1979 campaign in place of Walker and had an outstanding average of 19.9 yards per catch (19 for 379 yards)...also can return kickoffs and punts...has been among the leading special teams performers in his 4 seasons...played almost exclusively on special teams as a rookie when he caught just 1 pass...only the 5th player in Jets' history to make the squad without college experience.

PERSONAL: Wife Cheryl...daughter Erica 2...a true Cinderella story...was a 160-pound quarterback and defensive back at Brookfield (Ohio) High...enrolled at Millikin (Decatur, Ill.) but left after two weeks because he was homesick...later attended Youngstown State...got a job as a mechanic at Toby Gibson's Auto Body Shop in Brookfield...played for semipro team, Senango Valley (Pa.) Blasters (which later became Sharon Old Express), in 1975 and part of 1976 before team folded...got a tryout with the Jets because a friend, Bill Kushner (who wrote the book "My Son Joe" with Joe Namath's mother), knew Jets' scout Carroll Huntress...paid his own way to camp in July, 1977, and impressed everyone with his speed...Jets couldn't sign him because his college class wouldn't graduate until 1978...drove home in his 1970 Thunderbird and got a job working on schoolbus engines...tried out again in May, 1978, ran the 40 in 4.55 and signed as a free agent...nephew of Tom Jones, former player with Cubs and Indians...is third cousin of former Dodger great Carl Furillo...birthplace: Sharon, Pa...hometown: Brookfield, Ohio.

JOHNNY "LAM"

Jones

80

WR 5-11 183 4/4/58

Texas

Draft 1, 1980 3rd Season

PRO: "After a slow start, Lam came on strong at the end of the season in our playoff stretch drive," Michaels said. "He showed the ability to join Wesley Walker as one of the most dangerous deep threats in the NFL."...finished the 1981 season with tremendous results (14-237-16.9 avg.-2 TDs in last 5 games) after slow start...totaled 20-342-17.1-3 TDs for the season...played in 15 games and started 3...had season high 5 catches for 83 yards and a TD at Cleveland...also had 3 receptions in games vs. Miami, Seattle and G.B...had key catch vs. Miami to the 11-yard line to set up winning TD...47-yard TD bomb from Richard Todd right before the half vs. G.B. gave Jets a commanding 21-3 lead...missed playoff game vs. Buffalo with pulled hamstring...was team's 3rd leading receiver as a rookie in 1980 with 25 receptions for 482 yards...his average of 19.3 yards per catch was 2nd only to Walker...played in 16 games and started 13...had best day at Denver with 5 catches for 103 yards, including a 31-yard TD...has the ability to turn short pass receptions into spectacular TD runs...one of the fastest Jets players...was timed at 4.38 in the 40...showed great leaping ability and acceleration after catching the ball...is very durable and a good blocker...very strong for his size...Jets drafted him after trading their own first round pick plus Denver's, which was obtained in the Matt Robinson trade, to San Francisco for the 2nd selection in the 1980 draft.

COLLEGE: First team All-America (The Sporting News, Football News), honorable mention (AP, UPI)...named to AP Southwest All-Decade (1970's) second team...holds eight Texas records and shares two others...has 4 career receiving records with 85 receptions for 1,603 yards, 14 TDs...one out of every six of his catches was a TD...set school mark with 198 yards receiving vs. Baylor in 1979 and tied record with 8 receptions in the game...was Longhorn's MVP in 1978...worked with 6 different QBs in 4 years and led team in receiving in last 3 years...was 2nd leading rusher with 625 yards as a freshman (29 fewer than injury-plagued Earl Campbell)...moved from RB to flanker as a sophomore...ran track at Texas in 1977 and 1978...had a time of 9.05 in 100 yards.

PERSONAL: Wife Alyson...majored in physical education...returned to school during offseason...won gold medal as part of U.S. 400-meter relay team at 1976 Olympics and finished sixth in 100-meter dash...nicknamed "Lam" as freshman by coach Darrell Royal to distinguish him from teammate Johnny "Ham" Jones... "Lam" is from Lampasas, Tex., and "Ham" was from Hamlin, Tex...donated his Olympic gold medal to Special Olympics...shortly after signing contract with the Jets, made biggest single contribution ever to Texas Special Olympics, which holds largest competition in the world...served as an honorary coach of the New York Special Olympics...helped out at the Christmas party sponsored by No Greater Lover and Eastern Paralyzed Veterans for children stricken with leukemia...was named to Governor's Commission on Physical Fitness in 1976...an avid photographer who has had his works on exhibit...birthplace: Lawton, Okla.... moved in seventh grade to Lampasas, where he lived with his grandparents...childhood friend of Darrol Ray, who grew up 30 miles from Lampasas in Killeen, Tex.

I've told Lam that he's going to be a star in this league. You can see some of the Bambi (Lance Alworth) in him; the grace, the class. Lam is too fast, too smart and too competitive not to be a great receiver.

Draft 1, 1977

6th Season

PRO: "Marvin continued to turn in all-pro performances for us last season," Michaels said. "He leads by example and one of his biggest assets remains his dedication to his work."...selected to the Pro Bowl for the 3rd straight time, the 2nd time as a starter...has earned more honors the past 3 seasons than any offensive lineman in Jet history...named all-pro in 1981 by AP, Sports Illustrated, College & Pro Football Weekly, Pro Football Weekly, Sporting News, NEA and NY Daily News...selected All-AFC by UPI...considered by many to be the best tackle in football...started in 14 games at RT in 1981...missed games against Houston and Miami early in season with bruised knee...back problem forced him out of playoff game on first series...recovered to have stand-out Pro Bowl performance...was devastating blocker on sweep plays in 1981...served as one of the offensive co-captains last season...started 15 games in 1980 when he was also a consensus all-pro selection...he and Dan Alexander graded highest among the Jet linemen in 1980...his blocking along with that of the rest of the offensive line helped the Jets lead the NFL in rushing for the first time ever in 1979...was a consensus all-pro and selected team MVP by his teammates that year...an extremely intelligent, overpowering tackle...made remarkable improvement from 1978-79... "I went through a complete value change, and I guess I matured." Powell said...is a film addict and is usually the last player to leave the training complex after watching reels for several hours...studied old films of outstanding offensive linemen such as Dan Dierdorf of St. Louis, George Kunz of Baltimore, Jim Tyrer of Kansas City, Bob Brown of Philadelphia and others..."Marvin watches more film than any other player on the team," said offensive line coach Bob Fry, whom Powell credits as a major contributor to his success. "He's always wanted to be the best, and now he is the hardest worker on the team trying to achieve that goal."...was hampered by injuries in his first 2 seasons... named to NFL all-rookie team by UPI in 1977 when he was 4th player drafted in first round.

COLLEGE: First team All-America as a senior (UPI, The Sporting News, Football News)...Coaches' first team All-America as a junior...3-time first team All-Pac 8 and twice All-West Coast... started on 1974 national championship team as a sophomore... played in 3 Rose Bowls and 1 Liberty Bowl...switched from tight end to tackle as freshman.

PERSONAL: Wife Kristin...has degree in speech and political science...began second year of studies at New York Law School in Manhattan during offseason...always wears a coat and tie to games and carries brief case...the Jets' resident philosopher...a voracious reader who frequently quotes Shakespeare, Faulkner and his idol, Churchill...describes himself as a "Churchillian conservative"...has strong political aspirations...has stated desire to be President in the year 2004...campaigned for both Ronald Reagan and George Bush in 1980...was featured in Sport magazine having a political and philosophical discussion with William Buckley...has been honored by Women's National Republican Club in New York...did volunteer work for the Easter Seal Telethon and MS Read-a-Thon on Long Island...makes year-round home in Long Beach, L.I....father, Marvin, Sr., was a career combat medical specialist with the Army who fought in the Normandy invasion at age 15 and also in Korea and Vietnam...surrounded Marvin with books and papers on history and foreign policy when he was growing up...at age nine Marvin was reading books such as "The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich" and discussing ideas and current events with his father...also very religious...he and fellow tackle Chris Ward were nicknamed "Bookends" by Walt Michaels...football All-America, basketball and track star at 71st High in his hometown of Fayetteville, N.C....birthplace: Fort Bragg, N.C.

PRO CAREER STATS: Jet fumbles recovered: 2 (1-1978, 1-1980). Games played/started (70/69 total): 1977 (11/10), 1978 (14/14), 1979 (16/16), 1980 (15/15), 1981 (14/14).

Studying films of former great players is fascinating if you know what you're looking for. It's beautiful to watch someone who really plays his position well. A tackle moving with the grace of a dancer and hitting with the force of a rhinoceros. I would assimilate what they were doing into my own line play without even realizing it.

I didn't play football until my senior year in high school, I always played basketball. The football coach was always begging me to join the team, but I didn't want to. One day I told him to ask my mom, then I tried to beat him home to tell my mom to tell him, 'no'. But he beat me there. My mom's the type of person that if you talk to her long enough, she'll say, 'yes'. After one year of football, I liked it. Before I played, I would go out and hear shoulder pads pop and say, "I don't want to get hit like that. Then I got hit and heard the loud pop and it didn't hurt."

RICHARD Todd

QB 6-2 207 11/19/53
Alabama
Draft 1, 1976 7th Season

PRO: "Richard emerged as a team leader in 1981," Michaels said. "He's coming into his own in his 7th season and is still improving. Richard played hurt last season and also showed the ability to bring the team from behind in many situations."...had finest season as a pro in 1981 and was voted MVP by his teammates...set Jets' single season record for pass attempts (497) and completions (279)...his 3,231 yards passing was 4th best in club history...after tossing 30 interceptions in 1980, threw only 13 in 1981, the fewest by any QB in Jet annals...threw 25 TD passes, 2nd in Jets' records to Joe Namath and Al Dorow (26 each)...passed for over 200 yards in 8 games, including 312 against Houston and 310 at Miami...threw 4 TD passes in that same game at Miami...threw 3 TD passes on 4 other occasions during season...led incredible near-comeback in playoff game vs. Buffalo with 28-51-377-2-4 performance...directed memorable 2-minute drill to defeat Miami at Shea by leading club on 77-yard drive while completing 7 passes to 7 different receivers despite playing with a broken rib and severely sprained ankle...teamed-up with Wesley Walker on several spectacular plays, including 40-yard TD vs. Houston on a flea-flicker, 39-yard TD to open-up lead over the Giants and 38-yard TD vs. Green Bay to wrap up playoff clinching win...also connected with "Lam" Jones on several key TD passes in last part of season...completed a career high 56.1% of his passes last year... became the first QB in Jet history to take every snap from center in 1980... set NFL record that year with 42 pass completions (60 attempts) vs. San Francisco while passing for 447 yards, the 2nd best in Jet history to Namath's 496 in 1972 and tied for 10th best in the NFL... passed for over 200 yards in 8 games in 1980... was Jets' 3rd leading rusher, and topped QBs in the AFC in 1980 with 330 yards on 49 carries (6.7 avg.) and 5 TDs...set career high with 53 yards on the ground vs. New Orleans...his 31-yard TD was the longest run by a Jet in 1980...enjoyed first injury free campaign in 1979...was rusty in preseason after missing most of 1978 and lost starting job to Matt Robinson...took over No. 1 spot in second game of regular season and passed for 2,660 yards in remaining 15 games...led the NFL with average of 7.96 yards gained per pass attempt...brought the Jets from behind in 6 of 8 victories...suffered broken left collarbone in 4th game of 1978 at Washington and missed next 7 contests...was reinjured when he returned vs. Patriots and was placed on injured reserve...one of Michaels' first decisions as head coach in 1977 was to name Todd his No. 1 QB... progressed rapidly until he sprained right knee in 8th game vs. Miami...Jets were first in AFC passing at the time...missed next 2 games, returned in last quarter vs. Steelers and started final 3... had best passing day in NFL in 1977 and 7th best in Jets' history when he threw for 396 yards (4 TDs) vs. defending Super Bowl champion Oakland...one TD covered 87 yards to Walker, tying the 3rd longest pass ever for the Jets...started 6 games and was QB of record in 2 of Jets' 3 wins as a rookie when he competed against his boyhood idol Namath...ranks 2nd behind Namath in several Jets' career passing categories: yards (12,802), TD passes (78), attempts (1844), completions (972) and interceptions (104)...was sixth player chosen in 1st round of draft and 1st QB.

COLLEGE: Chosen Alabama's top QB of 1970's by Birmingham Post-Herald...named All-SEC by AP and UPI as a senior...honorable mention All-America...selected MVP by teammates...led Alabama to three straight SEC titles...MVP in 1975 Sugar Bowl...also played in Sugar Bowl as sophomore and Orange Bowl as a junior...completed 101 of 189, 1,642 yards, 16 TDs in career...rushed for 1,254 yards on 304 carries (4.1 avg.), 16 TDs...South MVP in Senior Bowl, passing for 332 yards and two TDs as dropback passer after running wishbone attack for Crimson Tide...picked for Chicago College All-Star Game but did not participate.

PERSONAL: Was married (wife Lulu) in Feb...has degree in physical education...has pilot's license...played Santa Claus at Christmas party sponsored by No Greater Love and Eastern Paralyzed Veterans Association for children stricken with leukemia...did public service message for United Way in 1978...biggest thrill in college was playing for Bear Bryant...enjoys scuba diving, hunting and fishing...owns beach house in Gulf Shores, Ala...mother Mary Ann has PhD and teaches nursing...father Carl has a doctorate and is associate dean of education at University of South Alabama...three-sport standout at Davidson High in his hometown of Mobile, Ala...birthplace, Birmingham, Ala.

I think I've come a long way just through experience and through hard knocks. I think I became more of a leader through example. I've never been a rah-rah type guy who leads people in cheers. I think I was more consistent last season, and this year I'll try to be more consistent.

"Stan is fast, intelligent, and his great offseason weight program made him a stronger player"...played in 16 games in 1981 and started 2...started at RG vs. Houston when Dan Alexander was injured and at LG vs. Miami when Randy Rasmussen was out...saw some playing time at LG in latter part of the season when he was used to gain valuable game experience and give Rasmussen rest at the same time...was only Jet lineman not called for a penalty in 1981 (365 plays)...also wasn't called for a penalty in 1980 (510 plays)...played in 16 games in 1980 and started 8, 5 at LG and 3 at C...played in 16 games in 1979, mostly on special teams, and started 1...originally signed with the Jets in Oct. 1978 and played in 4 of the remaining contests...drafted in 3rd round by Atlanta that year...survived training camp but was cut 2 days before opening game...very strong...bench presses 450 pounds.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman at Nebraska...played on Big Eight championship team as a soph...played in East-West Game and Senior Bowl...redshirted in 1974 when he switched from DT to OT.

PERSONAL: Was married (wife Maria) in Jan...has degree in construction management...worked out with Olympic weightlifters in his hometown of Belleville, N.J., during offseason...All-America at Essex Catholic High in his birthplace of Newark, N.J.

PRO CAREER STATS: Fumbles/Lost: 1/0 in 1980. Games played/started (52/11 total): 1978 (4/0), 1979 (16/1), 1980 (16/8), 1981 (16/2).

WESLEY Walker

WR 6-0 179 5/26/55

California

Draft 2, 1977

6th Season

PRO: "Wesley had a good year after a slow start due to injuries in preseason," Michaels said. "He then caught fire and became a dangerous combination with Richard Todd. Wesley draws double coverage and makes our running game effective." ...had the 2nd best season of career with 47-770 yards-16.4 avg -9 TDs...his 47 catches were 2nd on the team to Bruce Harper's 52...his 9 TD receptions were a career high and tied for 3rd best in the AFC...started and played in 13 games in 1981...missed games vs. Baltimore, Seattle and Cleveland with a strained calf muscle...set career mark for receptions in a game with 8 against Houston (128 yards, 2 TDs) and at Miami (112 yards, 2 TDs)...142 yards receiving at Giants (6 catches, 1 TD) was high for season and 4th highest in career...averaged 31.3 yards per catch in Baltimore with 94 yards on only 3 catches...paired-up with "Lam" Jones in final game vs. G.B. and had 2-54 and 1 TD...was 3-24 in playoff game vs. Buffalo...had fine season after missing most of preseason with groin and Achilles injuries...played in 10 games and started only 7 in an injury-plagued 1980 season that saw him miss 6 games on the injured reserve list...caught 18 passes for 376 yards in 1980...has averaged over 20 yards per catch in 4 of his 5 years in the NFL...has established himself in just five seasons as one of pro football's most dangerous receivers with a 21.2-yard average on 171 catches (Homer Jones tops the all-time list for those with more than 200 catches with a 22.3 mark)...missed the last 7 games of 1979 season with a sprained knee...still led the Jets in receiving yardage (569) for the 3rd straight season...had best avg. per reception (24.7) among all NFL receivers with 10 or more catches...was almost even with his 1978 pace when he was a starter in the Pro Bowl, a consensus all-pro, Jets MVP and NFL leader in receiving yards (1,169) and avg. gain per catch (24.4)...streak of 31 straight games with at least one catch was broken at New England in 1979...had an amazing 52.0 avg. on eight TDs in 1978, including dramatic 75-yarder in 4th quarter at Denver that gave the Jets a 31-28 triumph...had 48 receptions in 1978, the most by a Jet wide receiver since 1968...named to every NFL all-rookie team in 1977 when he led league with 21.1 avg. per catch...had 4 receptions for a career-high 178 yards vs. Oakland, including 87-yard TD from Todd that tied third longest pass play in Jets' history...ranks 5th among Jet career leaders in receiving yardage (3,624)...has had ten games with 100 or more yards receiving...has a remarkable 38.7 yard avg. on 26 career TD catches...runs 40 in 4.38 second tying him for the best time on the club with "Lam" Jones and Bobby Jackson.

COLLEGE: Rated 10th best player in country at any position by Jets' scouts, who were very surprised that he was still available in second round...probably was not drafted high because he underwent knee surgery after the seventh game of his senior year...Jets' trainer Bob Reese examined him before draft and gave him clean bill of health...holds NCAA record for average gain per reception in a career (25.7)...in 4 years caught passes from Vince Ferragamo, Steve Bartkowski and the late Joe Roth...also returned kickoffs in first 3 seasons...had 86 receptions for school record 2,206 yards and tied Pac-8 record with 22 TD catches...set conference record with 289 yards receiving vs. San Jose State...his 88-yard TD reception vs. Georgia in 1976 was the longest in California history...outstanding in track as sprinter and part of relay team... was Cal's first four-year double sport letterman since pre-World War II.

PERSONAL: Single... majored in economics... lives in Dix Hills, L.I., year-round... did work for Grumman Corp. on L.I. during off-season... has done work for the March of Dimes... did public service message for United Way in 1980... helped at Christmas party sponsored by No Greater Love and Eastern Paralyzed Veterans Association for children stricken with leukemia... is legally blind in left eye because of cataract he's had since birth... "It's really nothing," Walker says. "I've been playing sports with it all my life. I kept it pretty much a secret through high school and college. When I was 14 I was supposed to have surgery to remove the cataract... but the doctors decided it would not have helped. I do have good peripheral vision. When I close my good eye I can still get around the house with my bad one open. It's just that I can't read the eye charts with it. When I was a kid I used to memorize the big letters..."... father John Wesley served in Vietnam... and was stationed in Germany, Paris and all across United States... only once did Wesley go to the same school for three straight years, Carson (Calif.) High, where he was Los Angeles 100-yard and 220 champion and member of two L.A. championship football teams... played defensive back as well as wide receiver... was football player before becoming a track man... birthplace: San Bernardino, Calif.

CHRIS

72

T 6-3 270 12/16/55

Ohio State

Draft 1, 1978

5th Season

PRO: "Chris had a good season for us last year," Michaels said. "He worked hard on his techniques to eliminate penalties and his hard work paid off. Chris came in at a lower weight last year and showed a great deal of improvement. He still hasn't reached his full potential and he's working hard to achieve it"...started 15 games at LT...didn't start at Baltimore (knee and ankle), but did play...named all-AFC 2nd team by UPI...improved a great deal later in season after slow start...is becoming one of the most dominant run blocking tackles in football...was rated as the 5th best tackle in the league in 1980 by Pro Football Weekly...an overpowering, aggressive lineman...has quick feet and balance...was consensus NFL all-rookie in 1977...4th player chosen in first round of draft when Ward was picked, Michaels said, "I see Chris as a modern edition of Jim Parkar (former Colt, now in Hall of Fame), and I wouldn't say that about too many people. With Marvin Powell at right tackle, we've got two bookends for the next 10 years."

COLLEGE: "Chris has the finest work habits of any player I've coached at Ohio State," said Woody Hayes...consensus first team All-America in 1976 and 1977 and first team All-Big Ten for three straight seasons...named Offensive Lineman of the Year by Downtown Athletic Club during Heisman Trophy ceremonies...four-year letterman, three year starter...played 1,049 minutes in 44 games, more than any player in Ohio State history...played in Rose Bowl twice plus Orange, Sugar and Hula bowls...earned three varsity letters for Buckeye track squad as discus and shot put specialist

BOB*Crable*50

LB 6-3 228

Notre Dame

Draft 1, 1982

COLLEGE: "Bob is a very consistent football player who knows how to get to the football," Michaels said. "He's an instinctive linebacker and a hitter. Bob has good football intelligence and should fit into the enthusiastic style of our defense."...director of player personnel Mike Hickey: "Bob is a quality athlete and a great leader. The thing that stood out in our minds was his undying competitive fire. He has the intangible quality of rising up to meet the challenge. That is difficult to measure, you have to observe it. He gives us positional versatility with his intelligence, athletic ability and size. Bob is a hitter and a winner."...Notre Dame coach Gerry Faust: "Bob is a natural linebacker. He's a Bergey-style of player, a Butkus-style of player. You don't teach a man to be a linebacker. He's just a tremendous competitor. No doubt, he was our defensive leader."...is Notre Dame's all-time leading tackler with a total of 521...led Irish in tackles 31 times in 34 career starts...averaged 170 tackles a season over the last 3 years when he started 34 straight games...was runnerup to top draft choice DE Ken Sims for Lombardi Award for 1981...consensus All-America as a senior and junior...was Irish captain and team MVP as junior and senior...was player of the game following 24 tackle outing vs. Michigan as senior...also recorded 21 vs. Penn St. and 19 vs. Florida St. last year...set up TDs with interceptions vs. Penn State and Georgia Tech...named AP Midwest Defensive Player of the Week with 18 tackles vs. Georgia Tech...led Notre Dame with 154 tackles, nearly twice as many as any other Irish player as a junior...was team's leading tackler in every game with best efforts of 19 vs. Georgia Tech, Michigan and Alabama...established himself as one of nation's best LBs with outstanding sophomore season when he set school's single-season tackle record with 187...gained notoriety after he blocked potential game-winning FG attempt by Michigan with 7 seconds left to preserve 12-10 win...paced Irish in tackles in 9 of 11 games, including 26 vs. Clemson and 24 vs. South Carolina...played in 1981 Hula Bowl...has superb awareness and instinct...kamikaze style combines excellent range and lateral mobility...is the first linebacker ever selected No. 1 by Jets in the draft...runs 4.85 in the 40...23rd player selected in the 1982 draft, 4th linebacker.

PERSONAL: Wife Lisa...has degree in marketing and business administration...avid golfer...enjoys working on cars...has done volunteer work for the Special Olympics...participated in 1981 NCAA/Fiesta Bowl drug education television promotion campaign...was consensus prep All-America for Notre Dame coach Faust at Moeller High in his hometown and birthplace of Cincinnati...team compiled a 36-0 record and three consecutive Ohio state titles while he played there...also lettered in baseball and basketball.

You have to be semi-crazy to play linebacker. You have to be so emotional to knock a guy backwards, and yet, you have to be rational enough to think in critical situations.

—Bob Crable on draft day.

DWAYNE Crutchfield

45

RB 6-0 235

Iowa State

Draft 3, 1982

9/30/59

COLLEGE: "Dwayne is a big man who can run," said Michaels. "There is no question that he has the good size to run behind our offensive line. He has also shown that he is a fine pass receiver." scout Marv Sunderland: "Dwayne is a physical back with the quickness and strength to run inside, and the hands and running ability to be involved in our passing game and get outside. He has proven his durability as he rushed for over 1,000 yards and carried the ball 30-35 times a game in his last two years at college." was AP and UPI All-Big 8 as senior and junior...led Big 8 in rushing in 1981 with 1,189 yards on a team record 307 attempts...also scored a school record 17 TDs rushing...5th in the NCAA...accounted for 63% of Iowa St.'s rushing yardage as a senior...also had 24 receptions for 154 yards that year...was star of game in 17-10 win over Colorado with 168 yards on 47 carries (school record) and 2 TDs...most productive 1981 day was 43-171-1 TD vs. Oklahoma...2nd team All-America selection by UPI, following senior year...played in 1982 Gold Bowl and scored 3 TDs...recorded 7 100-yard games as a junior, his first year at Iowa St...led team with 1,312 yards and was ranked 2nd in Big 8 despite nagging injuries in latter part of season...accounted for 11 TDs...had career-best 179 yards on 36 carries and 1 TD vs. Oklahoma...ran for 135 yards, including career high 50-yard TD run vs. San Jose St...scored 3 TDs and rushed for 136 yards vs. Colorado St...transferred from Waldorf (Iowa) JC in 1978 and Garden City (Kansas) JC in 1979 where he rushed for 1,812 yards in 10 games, averaging 7.5 yards per carry...combines superior balance with brute strength...powerful (30 inch thighs), low center of gravity and durable...runs the 40 in 4.75...was the 79th player selected, 12th running back.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in child psychology...has done a great deal of volunteer work with handicapped and mentally disturbed children...childhood friend and college roommate of Jets' Kenny Neil...worked as a truck transporter in Iowa during college...enjoys fishing and camping...standout football player at North College Hill High in his hometown and birthplace of Cincinnati, Ohio...nicknamed "Crutch"

Proving the cliché that timing is everything, Dwayne Crutchfield received a rather big break to earn a spot in Iowa St.'s lineup. With Crutchfield on the bench on opening day in 1980, starting tailback Rocky Gillis had the bad luck to throw up in the huddle on the Cyclone QB. Crutchfield was sent in to replace Gillis, and proceeded to run for 121 yards and 2 TDs in just one half of the game. Crutchfield would then start the next 22 games and Gillis was switched to receiver.

RULES FOR FREE RE-ACTIVATIONS FROM INJURED RESERVE

Each club shall have during a season (including postseason) a maximum of three free re-activations from injured reserve which may be used only on players who were placed on reserve after the final cutdown of that year. In order for a club to use a free re-activation on any player injured in the preseason, such player must count on the active list at the final cutdown and be placed on injured reserve thereafter. Free re-activations may be used only on players who meet the four-week minimum requirements from the date of going on injured reserve during the regular season or from the date the injury occurred in preseason. The four-week minimum means that a player's injury renders him physically unable to play football for a minimum of four weeks.

Sept. 6, at BUFFALO 31, JETS 0, (79,754) — Cloudy and warm. The defending AFC East champion Bills broke open a tight 3-0 game in the final six minutes of the first half with a 28-yard scoring pass from Joe Ferguson to Joe Cribbs and went on to whip the Jets 31-0. A roughing the passer call on the Jets was the key to the Bills' scoring as the Jets would have taken over on a 4th and 17 situation. Buffalo completely stymied the Jets' offense throughout the game, limiting their downstate rivals to only 20:31 with the ball.

Sept. 13, CINCINNATI 31, at JETS 30 (49,454) — Sunny and

The Jets let a 14-point lead slip from their grasps and watched eventual AFC champion Cincinnati score a stunning 31-30 victory. New York jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the second quarter on two TD passes by Richard Todd, but allowed the Bengals back into the game before the half, 17-10. They moved to 20-10 and 23-17 leads, but a 3-yard pass from Ken Anderson to Archie Griffin put Cincy ahead for the first time with less than four minutes remaining. The Jets committed 19 penalties, 14 of them accepted tying a club record.

Sept. 20, at PITTSBURGH 38, JETS 10 (52,973) — Partly cloudy and mild. It was a disaster for the Jets as the Steelers whipped them 38-10. The Steelers rolled like the Three Rivers combined and gained an amazing 566 yards of total offense and 343 yards rushing. The 566 yards was the third most ever allowed by the Jets and the 343 rushing total was the most the New Yorkers have ever permitted. "I've never seen the Steelers play better, even in their Super Bowl years", remarked Michaels.

Sept. 27, at JETS 33, HOUSTON 17 (50, 309) — Sunny and warm. It took four weeks, but the Jets relished their first victory of the season. The New Yorkers received solid efforts by their offensive and defensive units. The defense, led by Mark Gastineau's 4, made 8 sacks, 3 interceptions, recovered 3 fumbles and recorded a safety. The offense, with Richard Todd and Wesley Walker once again looking like a deadly combination, struck for 478 yards and 4 TDs.

Oct. 4, JETS 28, at MIAMI 28 overtime (68,723) — Hazy and very hot. "I told our fellas to hold their heads high. Both teams can," said Walt Michaels after the Jets and Dolphins battled for five periods in the brutal heat of the Orange Bowl. Both teams made spectacular plays and both had chances for victory. The Jets tied it at 1:09 left with a brilliant 36-yard TD catch by Bobby Jones and then proceeded to dominate the overtime period. But a Pat Leahy 48-yard FG attempt was short and wide right and left both teams down and exhausted. Todd was 28-39-310-1-4 TDs (2-Walker, 1-Barkum, 1-B. Jones) and Don Strock, who relieved David Woodley, who left the game in the first quarter with a bruised back and ribs as a result of a hit by Joe Klecko and Mark Gastineau, completed 18-29-279-2 TDs. Nat Moore was 7-210-1 TDs.

Oct. 11, JETS 28, NEW ENGLAND 24 (55, 093) — Sunny and cool. "This is my 31st year in football and I can't remember a time my heart was more in my throat than today," said Walt Michaels after the Jets' heart throbbing 28-24 victory over the Patriots. Johnny Lynn had the game saving interception on the NY 4-yard line as time ran out. Richard Todd had his 3rd consecutive week in which he completed 3 or more TD passes, and the New York Sack Exchange added 8 more to their total.

Oct. 18, at JETS 33, BUFFALO 14 (54,607) — Overcast and cool. The Jets came back from 7-6 half-time deficit and rolled to a 33-14 upset of the Bills. The New Yorkers came up with a "lucky bounce" of a Mike Augustyniak fumble that Bobby Jones turned into a 61-yard TD run, and also churned out 166 second half rushing yards to Buffalo's 2 yards. The Jets' defense came up with three big turnovers — a Darrol Ray fumble recovery which led to a 29-yard TD run by Bruce Harper and interceptions by Greg Buttle and Johnny Lynn that produced a pair of Pat Leahy FGs.

Oct. 25, SEATTLE 19, at JETS 3 (49,678) — Rain and cool. The Seahawks kept their record in tact against the Jets with their fifth triumph in as many meetings. Steve Largent, Jim Zorn and Theotis Brown did the Jets in along with an opportune Seahawk defense. The Jets killed themselves with big mistakes such as a lost fumble on the first series in which they drove to the S20 and on the next series when they had an 80-yard TD play from Richard Todd to Wesley Walker called back because of an offsides penalty.

Nov. 1, JETS 26, at GIANTS 7 (74,740) — Cloudy and cool. A devastating pass rush, big plays from Richard Todd to Wesley Walker, the sure foot of Pat Leahy and an interception return by Darrol Ray helped the Jets defeat their cross-state neighbors. The Sack Exchange harassed Phil Simms all day and came up with 9 sacks. Todd and Walker hooked up 6 times for 142 yards including a 39-yard TD pass that Walker hauled in over his head in the end zone to produce a 13-0 halftime lead. Darrol Ray came up with two "money plays": a 64-yard interception return for a TD which put the game out of reach and a TD saving knock down of a pass from Scott Brunner to Tom Mullady on a fake FG with only 1:15 left in the first half. The Jets held the Giants to a net offense of only 22 yards in the second half. The Giants only score came when Chuck Ramsey dropped an attempted punt.

Nov. 8. JETS 41, at BALTIMORE 14 (31,521) — Sunny and clear.

The win over the Colts pushed the Jets over the .500 mark for the first time in the season at 5-4-1. The Jets took advantage of Colts' errors (a fumble, a pass interference penalty and a roughing call) to gain a 17-14 lead after trailing 14-10. The Jets got stellar performances from Richard Todd, who received a game ball, Wesley Walker and Johnny "Lam" Jones. New York's pass rush pressured Bert Jones out of the pocket 6 times and came up with 2 sacks. Jones completed 24 passes, but only 3 were to his wide receivers.

Nov. 15, 1975, at NEW ENGLAND 6 (49,542) - Cold, rain, windy. A devastating pass rush which recorded 8 sacks, plus two big defensive plays by Greg Buttle and two long TD marches, gave the Jets a hard fought victory in a driving rain storm in New England. The victory was the Jets sixth in their last eight outings and first at Schaefer Stadium since 1975. In the 3rd quarter the Jets marched 80-yards in 16 plays and controlled the clock for 8:55 and boosted the lead to 17-3. That series started with Pat Ryan at QB for Richard Todd, who had injured his ribs just prior to halftime, and ended with Todd back at the helm because Ryan had sprained his ankle. Joe Klecko and Mark Gastineau again led the Jets with 3 sacks each.

Nov. 22, at JETS 19, MIAMI 15 (59,962) — Cloudy and cold. "It was like a dream come true. I was crying on the sidelines," said Richard Todd after throwing an 11-yard TD pass to Jerome Barkum which gave the Jets a share of first place with the Dolphins in the AFC East. After a "great defensive stand" highlighted by Abdul Salaam's stop of Tony Nathan at the goal line forced the Dolphins to settle for a FG and not a TD, Todd moved the Jets 77-yards in 2:44 and gave New York the victory with only 16 seconds left. He hit seven out of 10 passes and found 7 different receivers while playing with a fractured rib and swollen ankle that severely limited his movement.

Nov. 19, at JETS 25, BALTIMORE 0 (53, 593) — Windy and cold. A perfect defensive effort plus the running of Freeman McNeil and the kicking of Pat Leahy gave the Jets a victory over the Colts. It was the Jets' first shutout since 1976 and was the New Yorkers' fifth straight victory. The win assured the Jets of their first winning season since 1969. The Jets held Baltimore to only 152 yards, the Sack Exchange recorded five more sacks and Ken Schroy picked off a Bert Jones pass. The Colts managed only 49 yards rushing and a net of 103 passing. Their deepest penetration was to the NY31 and that ended with a Jet interception.

Dec. 6, at SEATTLE 27, JETS 23 (53,105) — Indoors. The Jets helped put Milton (Wisconsin) on the football map as they bowed to the Seahawks and their little known QB, David Krieg. Krieg, who hails from the small school of Milton, was unawed by the NY Sack Exchange and completed 20 of 26 for 264 yards and 2 TDs. The big TD was a 57-yard pass to Steve Largent with 8:21 left in the game putting Seattle ahead for good, 27-23. The loss knocked the Jets out of first place in the AFC East and into the third spot behind Miami and Buffalo.

Dec. 12, JETS 14, at CLEVELAND 13 (56,866) — Overcast and cold. A tenacious and stubborn defense combined with a ball control offense to give the Jets a 14-13 victory on a cold and muddy field at Cleveland. They built a 14-3 halftime lead on Richard Todd's TD passes to Johnny "Lam" Jones and Bruce Harper and then held off a strong Browns' comeback attempt. Trailing 14-10, the Browns had a first down on the J6, but when Jesse Johnson battered away a Sipe pass for Dave Logan in the end zone, Cleveland had to settle for the FG. The Jets took over the ball at their own 42 with 4:25 left and literally ran out the clock picking up 5 first downs on the ground. Abdul Salaam led the Jets' pressure with 2 QB sacks and also blocked a FG attempt in the second quarter.

Dec. 20, at JETS 28, GREEN BAY 3 (56,340) — Cold and clear.

Another great performance by the Sack Exchange and an offense that was explosive and yet controlled the ball, led the Jets to the playoffs for the first time since 1969. The Sack Exchange was asked to stop the high-flying Packer offense with all-pros James Lofton and John Jefferson and did by dumping QB Lynn Dickey 9 times. The swarming defense held the Pack to 84 yards in total offense — 45 rushing and 39 net passing, second lowest in Jets' history. The offense kept the ball for 39:57 with a controlled running and passing attack, but two scoring passes showed the explosive capabilities — a 47-yarder to "Lam" Jones and 38-yarder to Wesley Walker. The victory earned the Jets 2nd place in the AFC East and the host spot in the Wild Card playoffs. The win also assured the neighboring Giants of a playoff position.

RE-ALIGNMENT—Baltimore, Cleveland and Pittsburgh join the AFL clubs to complete the merger of the two leagues. Jets placed in East with Baltimore, Boston, Buffalo, Miami (May 17).

MONDAY TV—ABC signs a four-year contract for a series of Monday night TV games. First time regularly scheduled sports events would be seen in prime time (May 26).

NAMATH RETIRES—Joe Namath announces his retirement from pro football in dispute over his ownership of Manhattan night spot Bachelors III (June 6).

TRAINING CAMP—Jets report to Hofstra without Joe Namath (July 8).

RETIREMENT ENDED—Joe Namath announces sale of Bachelors III and comes out of retirement (July 18).

ALL-STAR GAME—Jets defeat College All-Stars 26-24, becoming the first AFL team to play in the Chicago classic (Aug. 1).

CROSSTOWN RIVALS—Jets beat Giants 37-14 in first meeting between the two New York teams. Namath throws three TD passes and Mike Battle returns a punt 86 yards for a score (Aug. 17).

JINX BROKEN—Jets defeat Buffalo 33-19 to record their first victory at Buffalo since becoming Jets. Weeb Ewbank gets his 100th victory as a head coach (Sept. 14).

WINNING STREAK—Jets defeat Buffalo 16-6 to extend their winning streak to six, a club record (Nov. 9).

SECOND DIVISION CROWN—Jets defeat Houston 34-26 in Houston to win their second Eastern Division title (Dec. 6).

PLAYOFF GAME—Kansas City takes its first step toward the Super Bowl crown by beating New York 13-6 in the interdivisional AFL playoffs (Dec. 20).

ALL-PRO—Joe Namath voted the all-pro (NFL-AFL) quarterback by league coaches for the second year in a row. Joining him on all-pro squads were Winston Hill and Matt Snell (Dec. 22).

ALL-TIME AFL TEAM—Weeb Ewbank named the all-time coach of the AFL and Joe Namath, Don Maynard and Gerry Philbin chosen to the all-time AFL team selected by the Hall of Fame.

PLAYERS STRIKE—NFL Players Association strikes pro football camps, leaving the Jets with only rookies as full training camp was supposed to open (July 19).

STRIKE SETTLED—Veterans report to camp after missing three weeks due to the strike (Aug. 3).

OPENER—Jets open up the 1970 season against new AFC rival, Cleveland, losing 31-21 in Monday night TV inaugural (Sept. 21).

BLACKOUT LIFTED—The Jets agreed to lift the TV blackout of the New York area for the Jets-Giants game (October).

NAMATH EXITS—In the first meeting between the Colts and Jets since 1969 Super Bowl, Joe Namath fractured his right wrist and was sidelined for the year (Oct. 18).

NEW YORK RIVALS—The Jets and Giants met in the first regular season game between the two intracity squads. The Giants came back in the second half for a 22-10 win before a Shea Stadium record crowd of 63,903 (Nov. 1).

UPSETS—Behind Al Woodall's quarterbacking and the top AFC defense, the Jets upset the powerful Rams and Vikings within a three-week span, toppling two of the NFC's leading contenders (Nov. 15, Nov. 29).

SAUER RETIRES—The Jets' all-pro wide receiver, George Sauer, a five-year veteran, announced his retirement (April 16).

BIGGS DEPARTS—Weeb Ewbank had a player exercise his option for the first time ever as Verlon Biggs, DE, signed with Washington. The Redskins sent two draft choices as compensation (June 10).

NAMATH HURT—For the second time in as many seasons, Joe Namath was forced out of the lineup. This time he was hurt in first preseason game trying to make a tackle on a fumble runback and underwent surgery on his left knee immediately (Aug. 7).

NAMATH RETURNS—Joe Namath, on the sidelines for 19 straight games, made his return in the second quarter against San Francisco and tossed for 358 yards and three TD passes as the Jets barely fell to the 49ers, 24-21 (Nov. 28).

ATTENDANCE RECORD—Jets close out with a win over Cincinnati setting a season home attendance mark of 441,099 (Dec. 19).

NAMATH SPARKLES—Joe Namath had his finest day as a pro, throwing for 496 yards and six touchdowns as the Jets defeated Baltimore 44-34. Namath and John Unitas set an NFL combined record for passing yardage—872 (Sept. 24).

RUSHING MARK—Jets set club rushing record of 333 yards as team defeated Patriots 41-13. John Riggins' (168 yards) and Emerson Boozer (150) became first tandem in history to hit the 150-yard mark in a game (Oct. 15).

MAYNARD MARK—Don Maynard became pro football's all-time receiving leader with his 632nd career catch. The historic grab came in the fourth quarter at Oakland. Namath passed for 403 yards, but Jets were eliminated from race (Dec. 11).

WINNER HIRED—Charley Winner, former head coach of St. Louis, is named to succeed Weeb Ewbank as head coach of the Jets, starting with the 1974 season. Winner serves as an assistant coach under Ewbank for 1973 (Feb. 1).

JETS EVICTED FROM HOME—Due to World Series games, the Jets were forced to play their first six games on the road, including moving the Pittsburgh game to Three Rivers Stadium. This left the Jets with only six games for the home fans (Oct. 21).

EWBANK-O.J.—Weeb Ewbank's last game after 11 years as Jets' head coach, but Buffalo's O.J. Simpson provided the fireworks as the Jets finished out at 4-10. Simpson broke the NFL season rushing mark with a 200-yard afternoon and wound up with 2003 for the year (Dec. 16).

PLAYER STRIKE—Jets open training camp with 31 rookies and one veteran as the NFLPA strike begins (July 9).

FREE AGENT SIGNINGS—Jets hold open tryout day and sign 19 free agents to add depth to the training camp squad (July 10).

PRESEASON OPENS—Playing with a team composed mainly of rookies, the Jets defeated Denver 41-19 in the opening preseason game. John Jones was at QB (Aug. 3).

TRAINING CENTER—Jets took occupancy of their new training center in Hempstead, N.Y. The center contains coaches' offices, players' quarters and full practice facilities (Sept. 3).

NEW HAVEN VICTORY—After going 1-7 over the first part of the year, the Jets snapped their slump with a tingling 26-20 overtime victory over the Giants at Yale Bowl. Joe Namath threw six yards to Emerson Boozer for the winning points (Nov. 10).

EWBANK RESIGNS AS VP—Weeb Ewbank announces that he will retire as vice president of the Jets at the end of the season (Nov. 12).

VICTORY BINGE—Jets close out the season with six consecutive victories to provide a 7-7 season. Included in the streak were upsets over playoff-bound Miami and Buffalo.

DRAFT—Jets traded their number one pick for DE Billy Newsome of New Orleans (Jan. 28).

GENERAL MANAGER NAMED—Al Ward, vice president of the Dallas Cowboys, was named Jets' general manager to succeed Weeb Ewbank who had retired (Feb. 13).

NAMATH SIGNS—Joe Namath turned down a reported multi-million dollar WFL contract to sign a two-year contract with Jets (July 30).

GAME STRUCK—The final preseason game between the Jets and New England Patriots was canceled when the Patriots' players went on strike (Sept. 14).

JETS STRIKE—The New York Jets' players voted to support the New England players' strike and walked out of camp the week of the opener against Buffalo (Sept. 16).

PLAYERS RETURN—Jets' players returned to camp as strike was settled (Sept. 18).

EMPEROR HIROHITO—His Majesty, Emperor Hirohito of Japan, attends home opener and watches Jets defeat Patriots 36-7 (Oct. 5).

WINNER FIRED—Charley Winner was dismissed as head coach after the Jets lost six games in a row and were in the AFC East cellar with a 2-7 record. Ken Shipp, the offensive coordinator, was named interim head coach (Nov. 19).

RIGGINS 1,000 YARDS—John Riggins became the first Jet in history to gain 1,000 yards as he reached 1,005 vs. Dallas in season finale (Dec. 21).

HOLTZ NAMED COACH—Lou Holtz, who had a successful four years at North Carolina State, was named head coach. He signed a five-year contract (Feb. 10).

DRAFT—Jets tab another Alabama quarterback as their number one pick, selecting Richard Todd (April 8).

ISELIN CARDIAC ARREST—Jets' president Phil Iselin suffered a cardiac arrest while attending Jets game at Denver (Sept. 19).

HOLTZ RESIGNS—Lou Holtz, deciding that he wasn't right for the pros, resigns with one game to go and returns to college coaching job. Mike Holovak was named interim coach for final game (Dec. 9).

NAMATH LAST GAME—Joe Namath started what was to be his final game as a Jet against Cincinnati (Dec. 12).

ISELIN DIES—Phil Iselin, who led the Jets for eight years, suffered a fatal heart attack while at his office (Dec. 28).

MICHAELS HEAD COACH—Veteran defensive coach Walt Michaels was named head coach, signing a three-year contract. Leon Hess was named acting president. (Jan. 5)

PLAYER AGREEMENT—The NFL and the NFL Players Association agreed on a contract for the first time in three years. The contract extends five years and contains a modified draft. (March 1)

NAMATH WAIVED—Joe Namath, symbol of the Jets for 12 years, was granted his freedom as he was placed on waivers when a special trade attempt with Los Angeles was unsuccessful (April 1, became final April 12). Namath signed as free agent with Rams on May 12.

DRAFT—Marvin Powell, offensive tackle from Southern California, was Jets' first pick (May 3).

JETS WIN EARLY ACCESS TO SHEA—After a two-month court struggle, the Jets were guaranteed two September games in Shea Stadium, one on either the first or second date of the NFL season, plus two games in October. The agreement was for each of the remaining six years of the Jets' lease with the city, beginning in 1978. State Supreme Court Justice Harold Baer also allowed the Jets to play two preseason games plus their 1977 home opener at Giants Stadium in the Meadowlands (May 26).

KENSIL NAMED PRESIDENT—Jim Kensil, executive director of the NFL since 1968, was named president and chief operating officer of the Jets. Leon Hess, who had served as acting president, became chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate matters (June 6).

TODD HAS BEST PASSING DAY IN NFL—Second-year quarterback Richard Todd came through with the best passing performance in the NFL in 1977, throwing for 396 yards and four TDs in a 28-27 loss to the defending Super Bowl champion Oakland Raiders at Shea (Oct. 23).

WARD RESIGNS—Al Ward, Jets' general manager since 1975, resigned (Dec. 30). He became assistant to the president of the AFC (April, 1978).

EWBANK NAMED TO HALL OF FAME—Weeb Ewbank, who guided the Jets from 1963-73 and was the only coach to win world championships in both the NFL and AFL, was selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Joining Ewbank were Larry Wilson, Ray Nitschke, Tufty Leemans and Lance Alworth, the first player from the AFL to be enshrined (Jan. 23).

NAMATH RETIRES—Joe Namath announced his retirement from pro football (Jan. 25).

JETS CHANGE LOGO AND UNIFORM—For the first time since 1963, the Jets changed their uniform design. The team also adopted a new logo and changed the helmet to green (Feb. 27).

MICHAELS' CONTRACT EXTENDED—Coach Walt Michaels' pact was extended during the week before the Jets' opener (Sept. 1).

JETS WIN FIRST DEBUT SINCE 1972—Opening the season at home for the first time since 1964, the Jets upset Miami, 33-20, behind Richard Todd's three TD passes. It was the first Jets' opening-day win in seven years (Sept. 3).

JETS OVERCOME BRONCOS IN DENVER—In one of the most dramatic comebacks in the history of the franchise, the Jets fought back from a 28-7 deficit in the first half to defeat the defending AFC champion Broncos, 31-28, before 74,983 fans at Mile High Stadium. Matt Robinson's 75-yard TD pass to Wesley Walker provided the winning margin in the last quarter (Nov. 5).

WALKER SELECTED TO PRO BOWL—Wide receiver Wesley Walker became the first Jet since 1975 to be chosen for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl (Dec. 14).

JETS FINISH WITH MOST WINS SINCE 1969—The Jets closed with an 8-8 record, the most wins by the club in 10 years and the best record since 1974 (Dec. 17).

MICHAELS PICKED COACH OF THE YEAR—Walt Michaels, who kept the youngest team in the NFL in playoff contention for 15 games, was named AFC Coach of the Year by UPI and the Pro Football Writers of America. He was chosen NFL Coach of the Year by several publications.

JETS SIGN WITH WCBS—The Jets and WCBS Newsradio 88 agreed to a five-year contract. WCBS replaced WOR, which had broadcast Jets' games for the previous eight seasons (Jan. 2).

FIRST MONDAY NIGHT TV GAME FROM NEW YORK AREA—The Jets defeated the Vikings, 14-7, at Shea in the first Monday night television game to originate from the New York City area (Oct. 15).

MARVIN POWELL SELECTED TO PRO BOWL—Tackle Marvin Powell became the first Jet offensive lineman to be chosen for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl since Winston Hill in 1973 (Dec. 13).

JETS CLOSE WITH THREE STRAIGHT WINS—The Jets defeated AFC East rivals Baltimore, New England and Miami in the final three games of the year to finish 8-8.

MATT ROBINSON TRADED TO DENVER—Backup quarterback Matt Robinson was traded to Denver for the Broncos' first and second round picks in the 1980 draft plus quarterback Craig Penrose (Feb. 1).

DRAFT — Jets made bold trade to move up to second spot in first round and picked Johnny "Lam" Jones, wide receiver from Texas. New York swapped its two first round choices (13th and 20th) to the 49ers for their first round position (April 29).

TODD SETS NFL RECORD — Richard Todd's 42 pass completions set an NFL record (60 attempts for 447 yards and 3 TDs) as the Jets dropped a 37-27 decision to San Francisco at Shea. In that game Clark Gaines set an AFC record (2nd in the NFL books) with 17 pass receptions (Sept. 21).

POWELL CHOSEN AS PRO BOWL STARTER — Marvin Powell was chosen for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl for the second straight year, this time as a starter (Dec. 15).

OWNERSHIP SHARES CHANGE — Townsend B. Martin sold his 25% interest in the team to Leon Hess. Hess assumed 75% ownership in the club, while Helen Dillon remained at 25% (Mar. 2).

BRAGGING RIGHTS—Jets defeat the Giants 26-7 at the Meadowlands to raise their record to 4-4-1 after an 0-3 start. The defense records 9 QB sacks and the only Giant score comes on a fumbled punt snap. (Nov. 1).

FIRST PLACE—The Jets capture a share of first place with a stunning 16-15 win over Miami at Shea. Playing with a broken rib and sprained ankle, Richard Todd drove the Jets 77-yards in the final 2:44, hitting Jerome Barkum from 11-yards out with :16 remaining for the win. (Nov. 22).

JETS LAND FOUR IN PRO BOWL—Representing the Jets at the Pro Bowl were Marvin Powell (for the third straight year), Joe Klecko and Mark Gastineau as starters, along with Joe Fields. Richard Todd is voted MVP by his teammates (Dec. 16).

JETS CLINCH PLAYOFF SPOT—With a 28-3 victory over Green Bay, the Jets finished with a 10-5-1 record and clinched their first playoff berth since 1969. The club added 9 more sacks to finish the season with 66, one shy of the NFL record. Joe Klecko and Mark Gastineau finish as the league leaders with 20½ and 20, respectively. (Dec. 20).

WILD-CARD PLAYOFF GAME—After fighting back from a 24-0 deficit, the Jets' dreams died on the 11-yard line when Buffalo's Bill Simpson intercepted a pass on the 2-yard line with less than 10 seconds left. The Bills defeat the Jets 31-27. (Dec. 27).

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP

DEC. 29, 1968 — SHEA STADIUM

NEW YORK 27, OAKLAND 23

The New York Jets climaxed their finest season in history (11-3) by scoring a 27-23 victory over Oakland in the ninth annual American Football League championship game. A title game record crowd of 62,627 sat in on the chilly and windy proceedings at Shea Stadium and saw Joe Namath toss three touchdown passes (two to Don Maynard, one to Pete Lammons). In addition, Jim Turner, the league's leading scorer, booted two field goals.

Despite the fact that Namath attempted a record 49 passes, the Jets still mixed their attack. Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer gained 71 and 51 yards, respectively, behind fine blocking from the front line.

Oakland, bidding for its second straight crown, was led by the passing arm of Daryle Lamonica, who threw for 401 yards. Its running attack was blunted by the Jets' league-leading defense which held Hewitt Dixon & Co. to 44 yards. The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker.

The victory gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the honor of being the only coach to win titles in both the NFL and AFL.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969 — MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

NEW YORK 16, BALTIMORE 7

Defying the oddsmakers (17½ point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph. A crowd of 75,377 witnessed the spectacle in Miami's Orange Bowl.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (four yards) and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries. The blocking and pass protection by the Jets' line was superb.

The defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two; Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample, one each. The defensive unit harrassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The one touchdown represented the lowest output by the powerful Colts in 35 games. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and made him the only man ever to coach world champions in both the AFL and NFL.

AFL PLAYOFF

DEC. 20, 1969 — SHEA STADIUM

KANSAS CITY 13, NEW YORK 6

For the second year in a row, the Jets entered the American Football League playoffs as champions of the Eastern Division. Under the playoff scheme devised for 1969, the Big Green had to meet the second-place team in the Western Division in order to advance to the championship game. Thus the Jets entertained Kansas City at Shea Stadium in the first step toward another Super Bowl.

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters, neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series.

Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal on the one-yard line, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg, failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it, 6-6.

Two plays later Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jet 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only touchdown of the game.

Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets' series, but a fourth down incomplection and a Jim Marsalls interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the world championship.

AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

DEC. 27, 1981 — SHEA STADIUM

BUFFALO 31, NEW YORK 27

"Eleven yards from Cincinnati." That was the lament of the New York Jets who found themselves 11 yards shy of the end zone and five points away from a victory and a trip to Cincinnati for the Divisional playoffs.

In one of the most exciting playoff games ever played, the Buffalo Bills hung on to defeat the Jets, 31-27 as Bill Simpson made an interception on the two-yard line with time running out.

The Jets made one of the most amazing comebacks in playoff history, but a disastrous start proved their undoing and the finish of a great season. The Bills scored on the opening kickoff when they recovered a Bruce Harper fumble and quickly built that to a 24-0 second quarter lead. But the Jets never gave up and one of the most exciting finishes of the NFL began.

The New Yorkers rallied with 10 quick points just before the half to close to 24-10 and added another FG early in the third quarter to make it, 24-13. But then it appeared as if it were all over for the Jets as Joe Cribbs busted a 50-yard TD to give the Bills a 31-13 lead with only 10:15 remaining in the game.

The Jets refused to die, however, and Richard Todd drove the Jets 80 yards hitting a 30-yard TD to Bobby Jones. Less than four minutes later, Kevin Long concluded a 58-yard drive with a one-yard run and the Jets were now down, 31-27 with 3:44 to go.

A swarming defense headed by the pass rush of the NY Sack Exchange again forced the Bills to go three and out and the Jets had their last gasp. With 2:36 remaining and the goal line 80-yards away, Todd started the Jets on their march. They drove to the Bills' 11-yard line with 14 seconds on the clock, but Simpson made his game-saving interception and the Jets' season ended.

WEEB EWBank — A HALL OF FAMER

Weeb Ewbank, who guided the Jets for more than a decade, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1978.

The former Jets' and Colts' (1954-62) head coach achieved a distinction that will never be matched — the only coach to win world championships in both leagues.

The Colts were dismal losers when Weeb took over in 1954. He built them up to the NFL champions in 1958 when they beat the Giants in a memorable sudden death overtime and they won the title again in 1959. Weeb joined the Jets in 1963 and developed them to the team that shocked the Colts in Super Bowl III.

Weeb joined impressive company. Paul Brown, George Halas and Vince Lombardi are the only coaches in the Hall of Fame who were contemporaries of Weeb during his head coaching career.
